
NOTICE OF ADOPTION

by the

LEWIS COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the LEWIS COUNTY, Washington, BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS did adopt Resolution 10-359, AMENDING THE LEWIS COUNTY COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.

Lewis County commenced consideration of changes to the Comprehensive Plan in January, 2010 with Planning Commission consideration and review of a variety of changes requested by the Public and the Board of County Commissioners. The Planning Commission held hearings and made recommendations for modifications to both the comprehensive plan and to the County development regulations. The following summarizes the amendments to the Lewis County Comprehensive Plan;

1. Text revisions and updates to the Land Use Element:
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Urban Growth Sub-Element & Rural Areas Sub-Element
 - c. Land Use and Rural Sub-Element Glossary
2. Text revisions and updates to the Economic Development Element
3. Text revisions and updates to the Capital Facilities & Utilities Element
4. Text revisions and updates to the Economic Profile
5. Text revisions and updates to the Capital Facilities & Utilities Profile
6. Amendments to land use maps to conform to adopted zoning maps, including rezone applications approved
7. Adoption of environmental review including the FEIS for the Industrial Park at TransAlta
8. Adoption of findings

PASSED IN REGULAR SESSION on the 27th day of December, 2010, after a public hearing held the 27th Day of December 2010 pursuant to the Growth Management Act, RCW 36.70A.

The complete copy of the adopted Resolution and comprehensive plan changes is available for review at:

Lewis County Community Development
2025 NE Kresky Ave.
Chehalis, WA 98532

Copies may be requested for no cost. Or you may wish to view and download the amendments from the County webpage: www.lewiscountywa.gov

(Follow the links from Government to Community Development – News and Notices)

/s/ Karri Muir, Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners
Publish in the East County Journal on January 5, 2011